VALEANT PHARMACEUTICALS FAIR FUND DISTRIBUTION PLAN NOTICE

The United States Securities and Exchange Commission authorized this Notice.
This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

Who is Eligible to Participate in the Fair Fund?

If you purchased or otherwise acquired Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc. ("Valeant") common stock between October 20, 2014 and April 28, 2016, inclusive (the "Relevant Period" for investors in Valeant common stock) or purchased certain bonds issued by Valeant between October 20, 2014 and October 29, 2015, inclusive (the "Relevant Period" for investors in Valeant bonds listed in Table C of the Plan of Allocation) (the "Securities"), you may be entitled to receive payment from the Valeant Pharmaceuticals Fair Fund, created in the captioned proceedings (the "Fair Fund"), subject to other provisions of the Plan¹. Please review this Distribution Plan Notice in full to determine if and how you can make a claim.

The administration of the Fair Fund is governed by a Corrected Plan of Distribution (the "Plan") approved by the Commission on August 22, 2024. A copy of the Plan, which contains a description of eligibility and other conditions of participation, can be found at www.ValeantFairFund.com. Pursuant to the Plan, you may be entitled to receive a monetary payment from the Fair Fund.

What is this All About?

On July 31, 2020, the Commission issued Orders instituting and simultaneously settling proceedings against Valeant; J. Michael Pearson ("Pearson"); Howard B. Schiller ("Schiller"); and Tanya R. Carro, CPA ("Carro") (collectively, the "Respondents"). In the Orders, the Commission found that beginning in 2014, when announcing certain GAAP and non-GAAP financial measures, Valeant, among other things, misstated revenue transactions and included erroneous revenue allocations. For example, the Orders found that for five consecutive quarters Respondents touted double-digit same store organic growth, a non-GAAP financial measure that represented growth rates for businesses owned for one year or more. Much of that growth came from sales to Philidor, a mail order pharmacy Valeant helped establish, fund, and subsidize. The Orders found that Valeant improperly recognized revenue relating to Philidor sales and did not disclose its unique relationship with, or risks related to Philidor in its SEC filings and earnings and investor presentations. Valeant ended its ties to Philidor in October 2015 and restated its 2014 financial statements in April 2016, reducing the revenue that was improperly recognized.

The Orders also found that Valeant failed to disclose the material impact of certain revenue it received from drug wholesalers following a 500% increase of the price of a single drug that Valeant acquired in April 2015. Valeant erroneously attributed the resulting revenue to more than 100 unrelated products and did not record any as attributable to that drug. Additionally, in its SEC filings and earnings presentations for the second and third quarters of 2015 and its 2015 year-end report, Valeant failed to disclose the impact of that allocation on its GAAP and non-GAAP financial measures.

In the Orders, the Commission found that Respondents violated the antifraud provisions of Sections 17(a)(2) and 17(a)(3) of the Securities Act and, with the exception of Schiller, Rule 100(b) of Regulation G. The Commission also found that Valeant violated the reporting, books and records, and internal accounting controls provisions of the Exchange Act, and that the individual respondents caused some or all of these violations. Valeant, Pearson, Schiller, and Carro were ordered, among other things, to pay civil penalties in the amount of $45,000,000; $250,000; $100,000; and $75,000, respectively. Respondents paid a collective total of $45,425,000.00 in civil penalties, as ordered, into their respective Fair Funds.

¹ Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the meaning ascribed to them in the Corrected Plan of Distribution.

In each of the Orders, the Commission also created a Fair Fund, pursuant to Section 308(a) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, so the penalties collected can be distributed to harmed investors. On January 8, 2024, the Commission ordered that the Fair Funds created in each of the Orders be consolidated for the purposes of distribution administration.² Respondents have paid in full. The Fair Fund has been deposited in a Commission-designated account at the United States Department of the Treasury, and any accrued interest will be added to the Fair Fund.

On February 12, 2024, the Commission appointed Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC, (“KCC”) as the Fund Administrator for the Fair Fund, in accordance with the Corrected Plan of Distribution approved by the SEC. You can view and download a copy of the Plan on the Fund Administrator’s webpage at www.ValeantFairFund.com or on the SEC’s website at https://www.sec.gov/files/litigation/admin/2024/34-100808_dist-plan.pdf.
